KERSHAW COUNTY SPECIAL OLYMPICS CANCELLED DUE TO CORONAVIRUS

Kershaw County, SC – Out of extreme caution, The Special Olympics of South Carolina has cancelled Kershaw County's Special Olympics set for April 17th at Camden Military Academy. Effort is being made by the Kershaw County Special Olympics Committee to make additional arrangements.

“Although we are disheartened by the cancellation, we understand the precaution being taken.” stated Cleatus Ray, Kershaw County Special Olympics Chairman. “Our local committee is working diligently to provide an alternative way of recognizing these amazing athletes that is compliant with Special Olympics of South Carolina. We will keep the public updated on this decision in the coming days.”
